GHOSTS! BEWARE!

The boys and girls of Miss Aitken's room are planning a Hallowe'en party for Friday afternoon, November 1. This party will be a little late, but the pupils feel sure that the Goblins and Witches will stay in this vicinity long enough to attend the party and help them to have a jolly and exciting time.

The first, second, and third grade pupils and their teacher, Miss Darnelle, have made masks which they will wear at their party at two o'clock, Thursday, October 30. A lunch will be served and a ghost will probably appear sometime during the party.

The pupils of Mr. Haan's room have also planned a party for Friday afternoon.

GIRL'S ATHLETIC CLUB PLANS ALL DAY HIKE

The High School girls are going Saturday, November 9, to Rogue River, if the weather permits.

A girl's Athletic Club was formed under the supervision of Miss Burt, Thursday, October 24.

HEED! YE TYPISTS!

"Found! A Waste Basket In The Typing Room". This would be an effective notice to post on the door of the typing room for the benefit of those students who do not seem to know there is a wastebasket.

What a sight this room must present to a casual observer when a busy day of typing is at an end and the result of the days work is scattered in every direction upon the floor and desks.

Every student knows or ought to know what a wastebasket is for. Why not make use of it occasionally for the novelty of it, if for no other reason. The janitor, I am sure will not object to this practice. G. C.

Mrs. Edith Weidman, clerk of this district, spent last week taking the census.

The Grangers will give an Invitational Hallow'een Dance, Friday, Nov. 1, at the Grange Hall.

BAZARR DISCUSSED
BY CLUB MEMBERS

"Then will we hold our Bazzarr?" This was the main topic of discussion at the Civic Community Club meeting, Thursday, October 24.

Mrs. Mattie Brown, president appointed the following ladies as chairmen of various committees to take charge of the different booths at the Bazzarr: Mrs. Pruitt, dinner committee; Mrs. Roder, apron committee; Mrs. Ven Scoy, fancy work committee; Mrs. Morgan, candy committee; and Mrs. Caster, grab bag committee. December fifth was the date set for the Bazzarr.

During the afternoon the ladies pieced blocks for a quilt which will be sold at the Bazaar.
